"I WOULD RATHER BE RIGHT THAN BE PRESIDENT."—Henry Clay.

VOL. I. RALEIGH, FRIDAY, OCT. 27, 1865. NO. 68.

LOUISBURG

FEMALE COLLEGE.

REV. T. M. JONES, A. M., Pres't and Proprietor.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will begin on the second Wednesday in January, 1866.

Louisburg is a village seldom surpassed for health, intelligence, refinement and morality. It is in Franklin County, nine miles from Franklinton, on the R. and Gaston Railroad. Between these points there is a daily stage line, connecting with trains going North and South.

The College building, located in a beautiful grove, on an elevated site, is large, commodious and well ventilated. It will be thoroughly renovated, and fitted up with neat furniture and fire places in the dormitories. It is our purpose to establish for young ladies a school of the highest grade, affording superior facilities for the acquisition of a thorough and accomplished education.

With the advantages of a good library, a well selected Chemical and Philosophical apparatus, a competent Faculty, and large experience in connection with the Greensboro Female College, we hope, by a faithful discharge of duty, to merit a liberal share of patronage. Boarding pupils will live as members of the President's family. Terms reasonable, and will be made known in due time. Those desiring to send their daughters, will please address me, for the present, at Greensboro, N. C., and circulars will be sent.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. B. PELL, Editor.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1865.

THE NATIONAL UNION TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Jonathan Worth, Esq.

OF RANDOLPH.

THE PEOPLE must be trusted with their Government, and if trusted, my opinion is that they will act in good faith, and restore their former constitutional relations with all the States composing the Union.—Andrew Johnson's Letter to Gov. Sharkey, of Mississippi.

THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY.

We acknowledge His Excellency, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, to be the head and leader of the great National Union party. His reconstruction policy is at present the basis of that party, and we stand firmly upon it. This is the only party we acknowledge in this State.

Facts to be Considered.

Gov. Holden exhibited great foresight in calling Mr. Worth to the post of Provisional Treasurer. He had given already the very best evidence of his fitness for that position, by the manner in which he had managed the finances of the State for more than two years, and the eye of every one was turned to him alone, as the man for the crisis in our financial condition, consequent upon the overthrow of the Confederacy.

When Mr. Worth took charge of the Provisional Treasury, he found it empty. So far as the public knew the State was without any available resources. Mr. Worth knew that the State ought to have something left of the large amount of cotton, rosin, &c., which Gov. Vance had providently provided and removed beyond the ravages of war, with which to meet the debt due by the State in Europe and to her own Treasury. He found however that the officers of the government had seized upon most of it as captured property, but after a careful examination of the laws in regard to captured property and the date of the seizure of the State's cotton, that there was good ground to hope that a presentation of the facts to the authorities at Washington, would lead to the surrender of the seized property to the State. He at once repaired to Washington and urged his claims. The President and Cabinet gave the matter due consideration. The strength of Mr. Worth's positions and the force with which he urged them, for a time produced doubt and hesitation, but at length it was decided that the government could not surrender what was already in its possession, but it was agreed that no further effort would be made to appropriate what might remain, or was not in its possession, but it should be left to be gathered up by Mr. Worth and be appropriated to the use of the State.

He at once returned and turned his attention to the work of gathering up the fragments; and what is the result? In a short time he found property enough when collected and sold, to amount probably to the sum of $100,000. More than this we are happy to say, that within a few days, he has taken possession of property which when sold will amount to $100,000 more! Thus, in a brief period, by his indomitable energy and foresight, he has secured to the State about $200,000, most of which would have been lost, perhaps, in the hands of a less careful, persevering and provident man. Thus our people are saved the trouble of $200,000 taxation, which they would have been compelled to raise within the next twelve months.

We insist upon it that the financial difficulties which still environ the State, demand the services of such a financier in the Executive chair. If he is there, the people will be assured that no public money will be wasted, and that no taxes will be drawn from the pockets of the people, but what will be absolutely necessary to sustain the credit and honor of the State.

But while we attribute so much to the energy and fidelity of Mr. Worth in saving so much to the State, we must not forget to whom the honor belongs of providing it. Mr. Worth cheerfully acknowledges that these resources were provided by the forecaste of his friend, Gov. Vance.

It will be seen therefore, that notwithstanding the blame which has been attempted to be thrown upon Gov. Vance in regard to his "blockading scheme," that to that very scheme the State is now indebted for the means to carry on the machinery of government for the next twelve months. He has been charged with involving the State in debt, when the truth is, Gov. Vance had collected enough cotton, rosin &c. together, and preserved it from the ravages of war up to the time of the surrender, sufficient to meet every dollar of the English debt and what was due the State Treasury, leaving also a good surplus, the whole amounting to about $800,000 in specie—$600,000 of which went into the Treasury of the United States, and $200,000 will go into the Treasury of the State.

But there is a sequel to this which is sad to think of. The common government gets $600,000, and the State $200,000, and yet the State has repudiated every dollar of the debt which was created for the purchase of the cotton, rosin, &c. The very money which the members of the Convention put in their pockets for their services, was furnished by the much abused "blockading scheme," and yet the debt created which furnished the money, is repudiated.

The colored troops now garrisoning Wilmington will be removed soon and white troops will take their places.

The Power of Pardon.

The Standard says, that in the matter of pardons, neither Gov. Holden nor any one else differ from us. It concedes that the power of pardon is entirely with the President, and that no one has the right to share with him that responsibility. It of course admits that the power to suspend or to pardon is wholly with the President. When gentlemen file their petitions with the Governor, the Standard will admit, that the Governor should at the earliest period enter his endorsement upon the petition either admitting the correctness of the facts therein stated or denying them, accompanied by his reasons for denying them; and that said petition should be forwarded at once to the President or Attorney General.—Does the Standard think that for any cause, the petition of any person should be delayed or detained from the eye of the President or from the office of the Attorney General, beyond a reasonable time for it to reach its proper destination? If so, how does the Standard account for the detention of petitions?

When Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., went to Washington, he declares that he went to the office of the Attorney General and enquired if his petition had been filed there; he was informed that it was not there. He had filed it in Raleigh a month before, and was surprised that it had not arrived. It was suggested that Dr. Powell, "the State Agent" had it. It was sent for by the clerk, if we recollect rightly, but Dr Powell refused to send it. An order was then issued that it should be brought at once. Dr. Powell finally brought it, stating that he had detained it because it was not intended that it should be acted on at once. The clerk promptly told the Dr. that he had no right to detain it from the Attorney General's office—that as soon as it left the Governor's hands, it was under the control of the Attorney General. When Messrs. Mordecai and Hawkins went to Washington their petitions could not be found. We have heard it intimated, that there was good reason to believe that Dr. Powell then had their petitions in his possession. Now if these things be so, does not Dr. Powell assume the fearful responsibility of attempting to share the power of pardon with the President? Does he not in fact assume the prerogative of suspending pardons? What does the Standard think of it? Has Dr. Powell the right to keep petitions suspended?

Messrs. Ferebee, Winston and Eaton.

The Standard appears to be especially offended with these gentlemen, insomuch so that it affixes a nickname to each of them, thus indicating that its gizzard is especially troubled to digest something they have done. What have they done? There are not three more patriotic or devoted men to the interests of the State, in it.

Col. Ferebee, it calls a secessionist, and his speech is called a secession speech. In what paragraph or line of that speech, does it find the doctrine of secession taught? The Standard stultifies itself when it speaks thus. A truer old Union man was not found in the Convention of 1861, and a truer Union constituency cannot be found in the State than Col. Ferebee represents. When the Standard counselled and taught secession, Col. Ferebee was battling for the Union—But when his State took her position, he was found faithful among the faithless to her to the last. He now renders true fidelity to the Union, and will stand up for it again, when in the whirl of a few years, the Standard again preaches secession or some other heresy.

P. H. Winston, Esq., has especially excited the Standard's ire. He has disappointed that patronizing sheet and hence it pours out its bile upon him. Our acquaintance with Mr. W. is slight, and we think he is anything but oily. He is fearless, direct, and means what he says. Nor can he be used; and especially he has no oil for the Standard or its "straitest sect." That's the point of his offending.

Mr. Eaton certainly has given no cause of offence. Few men in public life have borne themselves more loftily, in the purity, integrity and consistency of his course than Wm. Eaton, Jr? He is one of the few men in North Carolina who represents the honesty, directness and simplicity of his honored relation, Nathaniel Macon. Whatever may be said, there is no guile, no pretence, no falsehood, about William Eaton, Jr.

The practice of the Standard in attacking offensively, those gentlemen who do not sanction its course, must be regarded as dishonorable by all gentlemen.

The 2d District.

The "straitest sect" men have brought out a Mr. R. F. Lehman, of Newbern, in opposition to Charles C. Clark, Esq., of Craven, in the 2nd District. Mr. Clark is a native of Craven, a man of ability, known as a sound Union man and supporter of President Johnson's administration. But he is withal a Worth man, was a warm supporter of Z. B. Vance's administration, and is a devoted son of North Carolina.

Mr. Lehman has been brought out by twenty-two gentlemen, two-thirds of whom are not natives of Craven, if they are even natives of the State. Like Mr. Lehman, we presume most, of them are from abroad, and have not been citizens of the County of Craven but a short time.—He is recommended especially because he can "take the oath," and of course is endorsed by the Standard and the Newbern Times. It is perfectly plain that Mr. Lehman cannot represent fairly and fully, either the interests or the sentiments of the people of that District, and they will of course elect the talented and devoted Carolina son, Charles C. Clark.

A most destructive fire occurred in Charleston on the 23d inst., by which several lives were lost and a large amount of property destroyed.

Mr. Worth the People's Candidate.

The Standard calls Mr. Worth the politician's candidate. It still harps upon the false declaration, that those who were especially instrumental in bringing out Mr. Worth, applied to some half dosen others before they did to Mr. Worth. If this were true, it would disprove the Standard's, assertion, that Mr. Worth is the politicians candate. If the politicians tried to get out a candidate, they showed their shrewdness in going to others before they went to Jonathan Worth, for when they got hold of Mr. Worth, they caught a Tartar; for he is the last man in the State that the politicians would attempt to tamper with.—His integrity, his honesty, his rigid abherence to truth and to the rights of the people, are of so severe a character, the politicians or the demagogues, (for they are the persons meant by the Standard) would try Jonathan Worth last! But we happen to know that those who urged Mr. Worth to run, urged him first and last. They were seeking a candidate for the people, and it is evident they found him, for the people are rallying to him every where.

The Standard's attacks now upon Mr. Worth must recoil upon its own head. A stronger endorsement has never been given to any man, than the Standard has give to Mr. Worth. See the following from the Standard:

"It is proper that we should say that, in speaking of Gov. Vance and the State Government, we do not mean to include such officials as the State Treasurer, (JONATHAN WORTH) &c., THOSE ARE GOOD TRUE MEN."—Standard April 19, 1865.

"We cannot omit to mention the name of that very able officer and meritorious gentleman, Mr. Treasurer Worth. He has labored most faithfully and diligently in his efforts to reorganzie and restore the Treasury Department to something like shape and form. But few men would have undertaken such a task as he has. With a Treasury empty and bankrupt, and with resources cut off in a great measure, he yet undertook this arduous task. No other object but the public good, could have induced him to shoulder such a burden with such a dark financial future before him. He deserves the sympathies, the approval, and the support of every good man in the State."—Standard Oct. 1865.

The Legislature.

The friends of Jonathan Worth in Cumberland have called a meeting to nominate candidates for the Legislature. This is right, and it should be done in every County. The next Legislature is a most important one. Besides the necessary laws to be passed, a Secretary of State, Public Treasurer, a Comptroller, two United States Senators, the Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts are to be elected. Remember, the true question now before the people is, shall the friends of the liberal policy of President Johnson or that of the "straitest sect," control public affairs.

The 7th District.

Col. James R. Love of Jackson County, is announced to-day in our columns as a candidate for Congress for the 7th District. Col. Love entered the Confederate army as a private, and for gallant and meritorious conduct, was promoted until he obtained the honorable position of Colonel. Before the war he was a conservative man and did what he could to prevent it, but when his State called for volunteers, he was among the first to respond to the call, and was in the front during the war. He represented Jackson in the Convention, and has served his constituency well. He is eminently national and conservative, and an ardent supporter of the administration of President Johnson.

Hon. A. H. Arrington.

The late period at which Col. Arrington announces himself for Congress in this District, and the fact that he does not define his position as to the Gubernatorial candidates is to be regretted. His card appears simultaneously in the Standard, Progress and Sentinel. Is he for Mr. Worth or for Gov. Holden? Is it his object to be elected, or does he simply design to defeat Mr. Turner and elect Col. Russ, or to defeat Col. Russ and elect Mr. Turner? Which.

If we are to have a Governor by United States Executive appointment, why, let us say so in so many words, and be done with it. This is a time for fair dealing, and plain speaking.—Wilmington Journal

So say we. It is a libel upon the President to intimate as the Standard does, that he desires the election of the Provisional Governor or would be affected adversely to the State, if he were defeated.

Gov. Holden's Opinion of President Johnson in 1861.

Times and men change, but who can have confidence in the eulogies of President Johnson, by one now, who so bitterly denounced him at another time. Read and mark.

"ANDY JOHNSON.—An exchange speaking of Senator Johnson of Tennessee says: "The man who was once the idol of his State, is now hissed and hooted, despised and disgraced wherever he goes—a fate which he truly deserves, and which awaits all who speak and act against their home and country."—N. C. Standard, May 29, 1861.

"ANDY JOHNSON.—The papers charge Senator Johnson of Tennessee, with the rankest treason to his own State. It is said that he has received $1000 from A. W. Lawrence of Boston, for his efforts to keep Tennessee in the Union. The course of Johnson, Etheridge, Nelson, Brownlow and Maynard cannot be too severely denounced."—N. C. Standard, June 19, 1861.

"Andy Johnson made his escape Northward from Tennessee in a close buggy with three armed men. He ought be caught ere he reaches Abraham's bosom."—N. C. Standard, June 26, 1861.

* * * "Mr. Edward Everett is the most elegant devil out of perdition. Behold the trio, Andrew Johnson, John C. Breckinridge and Edward Everett."

"O for a tongue to curse the slave,
Whose treason like a deadly blight,
Comes o'er the councils of the brave,
To blast them in their hour of might."
N. C. Standard, June 26, 1861.

Elegant Extracts.

"All we ask is that the people be heard de novo. Let the new order of things bear the full stamp of the popular will and the popular confidence. Nothing less, it seems to us, can quiet disaffection, restore confidence, create harmony, and put our people once more on the high road, under the old flag, to the full enjoyment of all that prosperity and happiness which they lost—by the forced secession of the State."—Standard, April 17*th*, 1865.

So the Standard said in the first issue of its daily. And so we say now. The approaching election is the first opportunity the people have had to reflect their will as to who shall govern in the State. We are ready to abide their decision. Let them choose between Jonathan Worth and W. W. Holden.

"We copy to-day several extracts from our friend of the Progress which we cordially endorse, but we desire to add a few observations of our own."—Standard, April 17*th*, 1865.

Yes "our friend of the Progress" and the "Standard," have been and are still cheek by jowl. Let the people remember it.

"The process by which the whole South arrived at the conviction that she was right, was not hasty or inconsiderate."—Standard, June 26*th*, 1861.

Was the South rtght then, if so how can the Standard now say she was wrong all the time.

SECESSION.—The Wilmington Journal in transferring to its columns some extracts from the Standard which taught secession, says:

It all this is not rank secession, we do not know what it is. Mr. Holden was the leader of secession in North Carolina for years, urging the doctrine at a time when we deprecated such agitations as an abstraction. But rats desert a sinking ship. Does this commend them to those who desert not their fellows?

First District.

Dr. Rufus K. Speed of Pasquotank, is announced as a candidate for Congress in the first District. We will publish his card to-morrow.

Let the claims of the rival candidates be fairly presented: but let us have no threats—no gags.—Wilmington Dispatch.

So say we. But the people will elect Mr. Worth, threats or no threats.

For the Sentinel.

Facts for the People.

Be it known that the follower of Gov. Holden, like the child taking bitter medicine, must shut his eyes, open his mouth and down with it. Witness the situation, which he forced his friends in the Convention to occupy, when after fixing the Legislature for the unexpired term, he was still obtruded forwarded for a full two years for himself. Jonathan Worth was not then in the field. Those who stuck to him on this occasion were unquestionably Holden men.

2. Let it be remembered that the Raleigh Progress and its editor JOHN L. PENNINGTON, (one of the "straitest sect," candidates for the Convention, who received 31 votes in Raleigh out of 600) are denouncing the Vance Worth men as "traitors," "rebels," and advocating the claims of Gov. Holden. The Progress and the Standard are the Governor's right arm.

3. Be it known, that Gov. Holden first said repudiate the war debt, then said pass it by and not act, and when finally the President directed its prompt repudiation, he still favored leaving the question to the people, thinking that he could make capital out of it.

4. Be it known that when the Governors of other States, confer with the President, they do it directly, whereas Gov. Holden has at Washington one Dr. Powell, paying him, as it is said twelve hundred dollars a year. Why is this? What does Dr. Powell do? Who is he? George Mordecai and Nat. Boyden, evidently do not have a high opinion of his memory.

5. Finally, be it known that it has been continually put forth that all that Gov. Holden does is by the orders of the President; that the delay in pardoning is not the Governor's fault, that he recommended Gov. Graham and others for pardon, whereas it is now ascertained that the Governor has recommended the suspension of the pardon of Gov. Graham and others. And for what?

AJAX.

For the Sentinel.

A Dangerous Experiment.

The interesting young Editors, so called, of the Standard give great glory to Gov. Holden for having saved the cotton and rosin belonging to the State. They assure us that "but for his personal influence at Washington, every dollar of it would have been lost." How do the young gentlemen know that? Some other Provisional Governor might possibly have had some sense, and exercised some little influence in Washington as well as Gov. Holden. When was it ever before thought or said of North Carolina that "her wide walls encompassed but one man?"

These filial and dutiful Josephs ought to be very careful, lest they make their hero, as well as themselves, somewhat ridiculous. Gov. Holden is not a very large man, and when they attempt to spread him to the extent of bestriding the broad State of North Carolina, like a Colossus, is there no danger of tearing his Excellency's trowsers? Then how would they be obliged to hang their heads and blush, in consciousness that "they did it?" It is natural that they should honor the Governor. Only think of their intimate mutual relations. They may be therefore excused if they love the very sound of "Governor Holden's" name, and if the iteration of these magical words is quite unctuous to their organs of hearing. But let them consider, that the relations of our people at large with their friend and relative, are not necessarily so very affecting. And there may be too much preaching for comfort even to a dog, let alone a discerning public.

But let us go on with the cotton and rosin. "No other State has been so favored," say the young gentlemen, with great innocence. Very likely, as no other State had engaged in the purchase of these articles, for the purpose of clothing their own troops as our old mother did. No other State had such a Governor as Gov. Vance. And so consequently had no cotton and rosin to lose. Do they claim for "Gov. Holden" the credit of having amassed these articles which are now so convenient, or for whom? Are they quite sure that "Gov. Holden" has saved them from the spoils, and not that indefatigable hunter up of cotton and rosin and funds generally—the much abused old Treasurer, Jonathan Worth?

A Voice from the Tombs.

It is to be hoped for the honor of human nature that Col. Russ is misrepresented as to having said at Smithfield, that he had always rejoiced at the Federal victories during the late awful struggle. If he did, he may be visited in the night-time by the ghosts of the murdered men whom he induced to join the Company of Capt. Grissom in the early days of the war.

When Col. Russ was a candidate for the Senate in 1862, he is understood to have claimed great credit for his active exertions, in inducing soldiers to enlist in that Company, and in others, and to have done as much in proportion to his means as any man in contribution for the army, and in increasing its numbers by enlistment.

What will the friends of the dead soldiers say, how will they feel, when told that the man who urged them into the strife, now rejoices that he has made them widows and orphans? Was he secretly exulting in those Federal victories, which carried these deluded men to their graves away from their kindred and homes? W.

The Tribune says: "Brownlow would make a pretty mess of Tennessee. He would disfranchise all the small rebels, hang all the leaders, and banish the negroes. This would leave about 4,000 men to do all the voting, hold all the offices and vote. Brownlow would be sure of re-election for the next ten years."

DIED,

At the residence of Eldridge Smith, Esq., on Sunday, October 22nd, Miss LEVICY JONES, daughter of Y. and C. Jones deceased of Wake county, aged 45. She was a kind, obliging neighbor. She has been a friend to the widow and a mother to the motherless. She expressed a desire to die and be at rest—that death would be a great relief—that it would be sweet to die—death had no sting. She would ask to be alone as she loved to commune with her own thoughts.

"Sweet solitude! when life's gay hours are past,
How'er we range in thee we fix at last.
Tossed thro' tempestuous seas, the voyage o'er,
Pale we look back, and bless the friendly shore.
Our own strict judges, our past life we scan,
And ask if glory hath enlarged the span:
If bright the prospect, we the grave defy,
Trust future ages, and contented die."

The Big Gun of the Campaign.

The late Convention unanimously approved the efforts of our Provisional Governor to restore the State to the Union. Every man in the State does the same. There has certainly been no disapprobation of these efforts, and the Convention only expressed the universal feelings in this regard. But how this resolution can legitimately be construed into a wish that he should be elected by the people as Civil Governor, is incomprehensible to any unsophisticated mind. The Governor was appointed by the President to accomplish a particular purpose. That has been done, and we all hope it has been well done. If the people should now desire to follow the example of all the Southern States but one, and elect some other statesman as Civil Governor, who has the right to complain? The Provisional Governor certainly does not. He neither designed nor desired, if his friends can be believed, to throw himself into the arena, and stir up strife, until he was urged to oppose Mr. Worth by fifty-three members out of one hundred and twenty of that Convention. It is not quite certain, that of these fifty-three, there are not some who now regret that their names were signed to that paper.—Some, it is believed affixed their names out of gratitude for favors past, some out of gratitude for favors to come, and some because they honestly desired unanimity at present among our people, and were not aware that Mr. Worth was already out. There are sixty-seven members who have signified no such desire, and consequently the inference cannot be legitimately drawn, that the Convention as a body could have been induced to recommend the Provisional Governor to the people as their candidate in the coming election. The resolutions of thanks to be graceful, are obliged to be unanimous. It is so always to the Speakers of our Houses, Presidents of Conventions, Chairman of meetings of citizens, of Stockholders of Rail roads and Banks &c., and no one on these complimentary occasions deems it his duty, or becoming in itself, to lift up his hoarse voice in opposition. Little could the sixty-seven members of the Convention anticipate, that such a use could be made of their complimentary vote. "Big gun" indeed! If this is their biggest gun, they are welcome to it, and may pop away to their heart's content. J.

For the Sentinel.

Gratitude--Going Home, &c.

The interesting young gentlemen who are said to edit the Standard, complained the other day of the ingratitude of sundry persons towards the owner of that important press. How much gratitude can he require? Does he demand not only the present supporting gratitude of those whose pardons he has been pleased to recommend, but also the thanks in advance, of those whose claims he may hereafter sanction? Why else was there an exhortation in a late issue to all to come to the polls whether pardoned or not? The boys did not say that all such sinners would be likely to be pardoned, provided they could prove that they had voted for the "go to home" candidate, while those who would obstinately support the "stay out" candidate, would have to strive a while longer out in the cold. Such language would not have been quite decent even in these times. But what else did it mean? The boys have evidently studied the maxims of that selfish old writer of a philosopher, who defined "gratitude to be a keen sense of favors to come."

By the way. What means all this noise about "going back" and "staying out?" Who says that if Gov. Holden is elected we shall "go back?" If not we shall "stay out!" Has the President said so? Not a word of it. Has the Governor said it? Not he. If President Johnson means that, he is just the man who would have spoken his meaning in unmistakeable language? The Convention of Mississippi by their acts, secured his approbation, which he expressed in very strong and authenticated terms. This Convention so popular with the President recommended Fisher for governor. The people proposed Gen. Humphreys—an unpardoned rebel. Did the President interfere? Certainly he did. But how? Why he forthwith issued his Executive pardon to the Governor so chosen against the wish of his friends.

Has the President in any other State, had his candidate, on whose election depended the momentous question of "going back" or "staying out?" No body has heard of any such terms—and can it be secured for good, peaceable, loyal old North Carolina to suffer such humiliation. Not a bit of it. In no other State but Tennessee, has the Provisional Governor been either elected or a candidate. Brownlow is the only exception, and can the young gentlemen desire our Governor to be an humble imitator of such a pattern of greatness? Do they desire a condition of things in this quiet State as exists in Tennessee? We think better of those exemplary young men—but also think that they have just over-stepped the modesty of nature, in planing electioneering tricks so unjustifiable and so patent. It is meant to catch simple ones. It cannot succeed. Our people sometimes wink, but they have always at their command half an eye at least, and now both are open. In the language of Judge Reade, "our work is finished." All that was exacted of us has been gracefully yielded, and now we are ready to go home, whether the election results in the choice of Jonathan Worth who first took the field, or W. W. Holden, who had it seems made up his mind not to be a candidate, until he was called out by the 53 members of the Convention, but this was after Mr. Worth had declared himself in the public priuts. If there is to be commotion then, who is the man of strife? Let the people answer. W.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER.—Judge Gilliam will hold a Court of Oyer and Terminer for Davidson County, at Lexington, commencing on the first Monday of November.

REPUDIATION.—Mrs Col. Gaston Meares announces that in consequence of the great loss she has sustained by the repudiation of the State debt, she is compelled to offer herself as an instructress in French, music and singing.—Wil. Dispatch,

GOV. BROWNLOW of Tennessee is threatened with impeachment at the next session of the Legislature of the State.

The President has recognized Henry Pinkney Walker as British Consul for the States of North and South Carolina, to reside in Charleston.

The trial of Emerson Ethridge has closed.—The accused submitted his case without argument, and he is confident of being acquitted, except on an unimportant charge to which he plead guilty.

The N. Y. Herald thinks the people of the North can wait a while for negro suffrage, but they want tar, pitch, turpentine, rice and cotton now. Something in that.

[BY AUTHORITY.]

Sec. 23. The persons now acting in the several Counties of this State as sheriffs, under the existing provisional government, shall, as soon as practicable, summon the Justices of the Peace appointed by the Provisional Governor for their respective Counties, to meet at the Court House of their several Counties on a day certain; and before a majority, or such number of said Justices as shall be so assembled, such sheriffs shall enter into the bonds as required by chapter one hundred and five of the Revised Code, entitled "Sheriffs," with good security, to be approved by a majority of the Justices so assembled, and deliver such bonds to the Clerks of the County Courts heretofore appointed by the Justices aforesaid; and thereupon such sheriffs are empowered and directed to collect the taxes imposed or laid by this ordinance, under the provisions, and subject to the pains and penalties set forth in the chapter of the Revised Code above referred to, except in such particulars as are otherwise provided for in this ordinance; Provided, however, That if the persons referred to as acting sheriffs, refuse or decline to enter the bonds required, then, and in that event, the Justices aforesaid may appoint some other person to qualify and act as sheriff, under the provisions of this ordinance, who shall enter into bond as aforesaid.

Sec. 24. The several sheriffs shall file with the clerks of the County Courts of their respective Counties, the names of the persons from whom they shall have collected any tax under this ordinance, annexing to the name of each tax payer the amount collected from him, with careful additions of the whole, showing the aggregate amount collected; which statement he shall subscribe and verify by affidavit before such clerk, in the words following: "I swear that the foregoing statement truly sets forth the name of each individual, firm and corporation from which I have collected taxes, and the amount of each of them, under the ordinance of the Convention, entitled an ordinance to provide revenue for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-five;" ratified the eighteenth day of October, eighteen hundred and sixty-five; All sums which may have been received by any sheriff, or clerk of any court in the name of the State as taxes, fines, forfeitures or otherwise, shall, if received by the clerk, be paid to the sheriff; and all such sums shall be entitled in the statement to be filed by the sheriff as aforesaid; and the clerk shall furnish to the sheriff a certificate verified by his signature and official seal, showing the total amount of such collections, to be filed by said sheriff with the Public Treasurer, when he shall pay over the same to said Treasurer.

Sec. 25. The clerk of said courts shall make a copy of the statement returned by the sheriff, and keep the same posted up in some conspicuous and accessible place in the Court House, for one month immediately after the filing of the same, and he shall, at all times, allow any tax-payer of his County to inspect the original.

Sec. 26. The sheriff shall pay over the money collected as aforesaid by him—less six per cent. where the amount collected is under one thousand dollars, five per cent. where the amount collected is over one thousand dollars and under two thousand dollars, and four per cent. where the amount is over two thousand dollars, by way of commissions for his services, which he is hereby authorized to retain—to the Public Treasurer, on or before the first day of February, eighteen hundred and sixty-six. Any sheriff failing to pay to the Public Treasurer as aforesaid, shall forfeit to the State one thousand dollars; and the Public Treasurer shall report such defaulting sheriff to the solicitor for the judicial district in which such sheriff resides, and such solicitor shall, at the next term of the Superior Court of the County in which such sheriff resides, move for judgment for the amount due from such sheriff, also the penalty aforesaid, and the presiding Judge is hereby empowered to render judgment in favor of the State against such defaulting sheriff, and the sureties on his bond, for the amount so due by him, including said penalty, without other notice to such sheriff or his sureties than is given by the delinquency of such sheriff.

Sec. 27. For this settlement with the Treasurer the sheriff shall be paid by the Treasurer, five dollars for each day he may be necessarily engaged therein, and four dollars for every thirty miles of twice the estimated distance from his home to the seat of government, by the most usual way travelled.

Sec. 28. That five hundred copies of this ordinance be printed for distribution by the Treasurer among the sheriffs and clerks of the different Counties of this State.

[Ratified in Convention, this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.]

E. G. READE, President.

JAS. H. MOORE, Secretary of the Convention.
R. C. BADGER, Assistant Secretary.

THE JONATHANS—FATHER AND SON.—Countries are known in the common conversation by familiar names, derived from some incident in their history, or some characteristic. The English, for instance, are "John Bull," the Chinese "John Chinaman," the United States are known abroad as "Brother Jonathan." And when North Carolina knocks at the door of the old family Union for admittance, how appropriate that she should be led by JONATHAN. Her claims and WORTH will be admitted and old Brother Jonathan will acknowledge his kin.—Greensboro Patriot.

CONUNDRUMS FOR THE TIMES.—Why will the people's candidate for Governor of North Carolina be President Johnson's favorite? Because being worthy himself, the President esteems Worth.

What is the most honorable characteristic of North Carolina? She always prefers Worth.—Why will she be respected abroad? Because she respects her own Worth. How will she most easily get back into the Union? By relying on her Worth.—Greensboro' Patriot.

HIGH PRICES FOR TOBACCO.—There was sold at Lynch's Warehouse, Lynchburg, on Thursday, one lot of tobacco, weighing 390 pounds, at $55 per cwt; and another lot, weighing 349 pounds, at $62,50 per cwt.

In Richmond, on Wednesday, Messrs. Stokes & Co sold a crop for Messrs. Reid & McCam, of Reidsville, N. C., one hogshead selling at $95,00, one at $32,00, and one at $30,00.

First Boat.

We notice the arrival last evening of the steamer North Carolina, Capt. Lutterloh, from Fayetteville, which place she left on Thursday.

This, we believe, is the first boat all the way from Fayetteville for weeks past, and her arrival goes to show that there is once more some water in the river. We trust that we will soon have free and constant intercourse with our up river friends.—Wilmington Journal.

The Editor of the Washington Star understands that the President has definitely decided not to take the Southern trip talked of and for which it was said the steamer Rhode Island had been put in preparation.

AN EVENING PAPER.—The Washington Star says Mr. Roger A. Pryor is about to start an evening paper in Baltimore.

FOR CONGRESS.

COL. JAMES R. LOVE.

WE are authorised to announce Col. JAMES R. LOVE of Jackson County, as a Conservative—National Union Candidate for a seat in the House of Representives of the United States, in the 7th, Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Ashe, Alleghany, Watauga, Yancy, Mitchell, McDowell, Burke, Caldwell, Rutherford, Cleaveland, Polk, Henderson, Transylvania, Buncombe, Madison, Haywood, Jackson, Macon, Cherokee and Clay. Oct. 25 1865.

TO THE VOTERS

Of the Fourth Congressional District, composed of the Counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Wake, Johnson and Nash:

FELLOW CITIZENS:—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election, precludes the possibility of a canvass, indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all. The particular measures that will claim the attention of the ensuing Congress, cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, idle speculations and precedent pledges are vain and unnecessary. There is one question however, which seems to be agitating to some extent the minds of the people, both North and South, but which properly comes within the purview of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.

If I am honored fellow citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights both of person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very Respectfully,
Your Obedient Servant,
A. H. ARRINGTON.

Purchasers seldom meet with such inducements as are here offered. Pine timber can be delivered on the R. & G. R. R. 7 miles from the premises. Also the crop of Corn and Fodder, Horses, Mules, Hogs and Cattle, consisting of Beeves, Milch Cows, and Work Oxen. Dump and Ox Carts, Wagons and other Agricultural implements too tedious to mention. Oct. 28 66 2w.

North Carolina Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE Company on the 27th of September, an assessment of 15 per cent. was levied on all premium Notes in the office of the Company at the time the losses occurred, to be paid in three installments, viz: six, nine and twelve months from 1st October, 1865.

The amount of premium Notes on hand,		$220,000
" "	Allowed Losses,	10,000
" "	Unsettled do.	7,500

(There are some losses not yet reported, the amount of which, of course, cannot now be stated.)

The assessment may appear to be disproportionate to the amount of the losses; but the Directors, taking into consideration the changes in property by sale, without transfer of policies, by destruction during the war, &c., &c., do not think that more will be raised by it than will be needed to meet the actual wants of the Company.

There will be, necessarily some delay in the payment of the losses. It is hoped, however, that there will be no complaint on this account; especially, when it is recollected that payment in some cases, was tendered in Confederate currency and refused.

The Company is prepared to take risks as in former times, and on as favorable terms. Address all letters to the Secretary. T. H. SBLBY, Pres't.

PLANTATION FOR RENT.

THE SUBSCRIBER, HAVING ENGAGED IN another business, wishes to rent out his plantation for the ensuing year. He does not want more than eight, nor less than six hands worked upon it. For this number of hands, the opportunity for making a crop is unusually fine. The chance for

is very good, and for

TOBACCO AND OATS,

superior. There are seventy thousand tobacco hills which may be put in, that will make good tobacco without manure, and there is plenty of the very best tobacco land that may be cleared. The location is in a very fine neighborhood, three miles from Macon Depot on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road, and is one of the most healthy and delightful in the County. The residence contains six rooms, and there are all the necessary outhouses and a good orchard. He will sell everything necessary to carry on the farm—stock, crop, team, plantation implements, &c., &c. Address, or call upon
